

Mr. Abdulaziz Bin Nasser Al-Khalifa
CEO
Qatar Development Bank
Qatar

Mr. Abdulaziz Bin Nasser Al-Khalifa was appointed as CEO in September 2013 in Qatar Development Bank and brings extensive experience in the SME and the private sector and field of entrepreneurship.

Al Khalifa previously held the position of Executive Director, Strategy & Business Development at Qatar Development Bank He played the lead role in the launching of several cornerstone initiatives, such as the Al Dhameen Partial Guarantee Program, the Tasdeer Qatar Export Development Agency and the Housing Loan Program for Qatari citizens.

Al Khalifa is Chairman of the Bedaya Center for entrepreneurship and chairman of Qatar Business Incubator. During his chairmanship, the Bedaya Center has provided support and access to knowledge to over 5,000 entrepreneurs. In addition to his public positions, Abdulaziz is a respected member of the Qatari business community and is Chairman of the Qatar German Medical Devices Company, the largest manufacturer of medical devices in the region. During his time with the firm he has be responsible for a significant increase in profitability.

Mr. Al-Khalifa holds an MBA from Qatar University, a bachelor degree in Engineering from California State University and has received several specialized certificates from Harvard and Insead Universities.