

Mr. Johan Gorecki
Co-Founder of SKYPE
SWEDEN

Johan Gorecki is a CEO and Founder of Globe Forum and Springfellow International. Springfellow is a creative concept agency that delivers innovation strategies and concepts for international companies. Throughout his career Johan has been committed to the search for innovative ideas. He's been helping innovators and entrepreneurs focused on sustainability to find partners and investors that will bring their ideas to life. Thanks to his strong relationship with the community of European investors, Johan's been managing deal flow animation and due diligence with special focus on IT and related industries. Not only does he support the fund raising activities at international level, but also plays an active role in the post-investment activities aiming at supporting new businesses (e.g. by providing base investment) and entering non-domestic markets. Johan is a charismatic speaker with the power to inspire and the ability to take business workshops to another level. He specializes in investments, ICT, IT and related industries, transportation, green technology, sustainable innovations, open innovations, crowdsourcing, crowdfunding.